hotel⁺plus Hotel Plus Show

"Hotel Plus" Conceptual Hotel Show is a high-end event for the design and engineering specialists in the hospitality industry. It is organised by the China Tourist Hotels Association (hereinafter referred to as "CTHA") and UBM Sinoexpo, in order to present the sensational concept of classical and futuristic design. "Hotel Plus" joins hands with Starwood, Intercontinental Hotels Group (IHG), BTG, New Century and Well-tech Studio (Italy), Jingjiang Inns and Kai Yuan Group. In addition to this, eco-friendly themed conferences of hotel engineering and design will be concurrently held to provide information exchange opportunities on the topics of engineering development, design trends and information technology in the industry. The platform is tailor-made for HDD (Hotelex + Design & Deco) show's valued customers including the hotel project managers, engineers, designers, IT specialists and those involved in project construction and re-construction.

Hotel Plus, Conceptual Hotel Show

An international design team from Singapore, Hong Kong and China will set up four suites of sample hotel rooms under the theme of the Conceptual Hotel Show on behalf of the super-star level hotel brands including Starwood, Intercontinental Hotels Group (IHG), BTG, New Century and Well-tech Studio (Italy), Jingjiang Inns and Kai Yuan Group. In addition, Italian designers will create new space aesthetics with the most advanced technology, modern design and high quality in two archetypal suites of hotel rooms.

The Conceptual Hotel Show will present elegant hotel facilities and settings demonstrating the contemporary and futuristic arts of space adornment and display. It will also illustrate hotel engineering standards, European-class trendy hotel design, and the concepts of green.
